The five “Cs” for innovating in evaluation: Lessons from the field

Evangeline Danseco, PhD, CE

Closing keynote presentation, Annual Learning Event, National Capital Chapter, Canadian Evaluation Society
February 21, 2013
Ontario Centre of Excellence for Child and Youth Mental Health

Strategic priorities for 2010-2016

Goal 1
Foster a culture of organizational learning to support agencies in using evidence to improve client outcomes

Goal 2
Build and develop collaborative partnerships to sustain capacity within mental health services

Goal 3
Be a true learning organization and lead by example
CURIOSITY
Openness to learning

“In the beginner’s mind there are many possibilities, in the expert’s there are few.”

- Shunryu Suzuki
COURAGE & COMFORT WITH UNCERTAINTY
“Vulnerability is the birthplace of innovation, creativity and change”

- Brene Brown
Communicate
Carry it through: Get to work!
Connect and Collaborate
Innovating in evaluation

Lessons from the field

- Curiosity
- Communication
- Courage and comfort with ambiguity
- Carrying it through
- Connect and collaborate
For more information

Evangeline Danseco, PhD, CE
Director of Evaluation and Research
edanseco@cheo.on.ca
613-737-2297 ext 3319